SECTION L - INSTRUCTIONS, CONDITIONS, AND NOTICES TO OFFERORS

L.1 General Instructions

The Government intends to evaluate proposals and award a contract without discussions with offerors.

Offerors are cautioned that the Government may reject any proposal that does not conform to these instructions.

Information provided in one volume shall not be incorporated by reference into another volume.

Each volume shall be written on a stand-alone basis so that its contents may be evaluated with a minimum of cross-referencing.

The proposal shall consist of the following volumes:

Volume	Title	Page Limit
I	Technical	40
II	Management	20
III	Cost	No limit

L.2 Proposal Format

Pages shall be 8.5 by 11 inches with one-inch margins. Text shall be no smaller than 12-point Times New Roman; tables and figures may use 10-point font.

Each page shall be numbered and shall include the solicitation number in the header.

L.3 Volume I - Technical

L.3.1 Technical Approach

The Offeror shall describe its technical approach to designing, building and testing the spacecraft bus.

The description shall address the following:

(a) thermal control design, including margins at end of life;

(b) power system sizing for worst-case eclipse;

(c) structural design and launch load analysis; and

(d) integration and test flow.

Thermal margins are of particular interest because the mission profile includes long eclipse periods.

L.3.2 Technical Risk

The Offeror shall identify the top five technical risks and describe a mitigation for each.

Risks shall be presented in a table showing likelihood, consequence and the planned mitigation.

The Government intends to evaluate proposals and award a contract without discussions with offerors.

Offerors are cautioned that the Government may reject any proposal that does not conform to these instructions.

Information provided in one volume shall not be incorporated by reference into another volume.

Each volume shall be written on a stand-alone basis so that its contents may be evaluated with a minimum of cross-referencing.

Elaborate brochures and promotional material are neither required nor desired.

The Offeror shall clearly identify any assumptions, conditions or exceptions to the terms of this solicitation.

L.4 Volume II - Management

L.4.1 Integrated Master Schedule

The Offeror shall provide an Integrated Master Schedule (IMS) that includes all major milestones from contract award through launch.

The IMS shall be provided in Microsoft Project format and shall identify the critical path.

L.4.2 Key Personnel

The Offeror shall identify the Program Manager and Chief Engineer and provide a resume for each.

Resumes shall not exceed two pages each and do not count against the page limit.

The Government intends to evaluate proposals and award a contract without discussions with offerors.

Offerors are cautioned that the Government may reject any proposal that does not conform to these instructions.

Information provided in one volume shall not be incorporated by reference into another volume.

Each volume shall be written on a stand-alone basis so that its contents may be evaluated with a minimum of cross-referencing.

Elaborate brochures and promotional material are neither required nor desired.

The Offeror shall clearly identify any assumptions, conditions or exceptions to the terms of this solicitation.

L.5 Volume III - Cost

The Offeror shall provide a cost breakdown by contract line item number and by fiscal year.

Cost data shall be provided in Microsoft Excel with all formulas intact.

The Government intends to evaluate proposals and award a contract without discussions with offerors.

Offerors are cautioned that the Government may reject any proposal that does not conform to these instructions.

Information provided in one volume shall not be incorporated by reference into another volume.

Each volume shall be written on a stand-alone basis so that its contents may be evaluated with a minimum of cross-referencing.

Elaborate brochures and promotional material are neither required nor desired.

The Offeror shall clearly identify any assumptions, conditions or exceptions to the terms of this solicitation.